Quality nutrition is fundamental for developing brains and bodies. It is therefore essential to introduce your baby to a variety of fruits and vegetables, to ensure their optimal health and growth, as early as possible.

Thanks to our convenient baby food delivery service, parents can help their little ones develop healthy eating habits with ease! Our organic selection of produce provides an abundance of vitamins, minerals, and electrolytes to keep them healthy and happy, with zero hassle.

Also, every meal we serve is freshly prepared and delivered right to your door. Take the struggle out of meal planning by letting us handle your grocery shopping.

Now you have more time to cuddle and play with your little one! You can trust our baby food delivery service to provide nutritious and delicious, fresh food for your baby. Go ahead and take a deep breath—we've got you covered!

Being a new parent has its challenges, but mealtime shouldn't be one of them. Fortunately, having superior nutrition for your baby doesn't have to mean stressing out about it with our flexible, first-rate baby food delivery service.

A specialized membership through Raised Real helps subscribers balance all the demands of parenting without compromising an ounce of quality, taste, or nutrition.

We collaborate with our trained chefs to prepare delicious, organic, prepackaged kids meals, that you can steam, puree, or mash, and serve within 10 minutes.

How It Works

We strive to provide all the freshest organic, high-quality foods you need to feed your baby. Our subscription-based service makes it easy for you to get the nutrition your baby needs without having to spend hours in the kitchen. We also offer convenient delivery options and free shipping on all orders.

Our organic baby meals are flash-frozen at peak nutrition and freshly harvested, allowing parents to give their baby the healthiest start possible. We'll send your little one 20 delicious pre-portioned meals every other week, so you'll never miss a beat at mealtime!

No more worrying about what to feed the baby, Raised Real provides you with the tools for preparing healthy, hassle-free, meals in minutes.

Raised Real is dedicated to bringing you the freshest, most nutritious food products directly from local farms. Buying organic ingredients locally not only helps to reduce our carbon footprint, but also helps communities thrive.

What's on the Menu

We are dedicated to providing our customers with the highest quality meals for their little ones. We serve only organic, homemade baby food, made with whole food ingredients you can trust.

Plus, your child will have the opportunity to try a wide array of flavors bi-weekly, so their palate will be expanded over time!

Protein and Healthy Fats: Our meals are the perfect mix of premium plant-based proteins and fats to help fuel your baby's brain and body development.

With ingredients like Peruvian sachu inchi oil, a superfood found only in South America, as well as avocado oil loaded with oleic acid, we guarantee maximum nutrient absorption.

Further, our delicious pre-made meals are packed with vegetable protein, including superfoods such as chia seeds and white quinoa that are gentle on babies' digestive system.

Handling Picky Eaters: Kids who are picky about food can be hard to please, but meal prep services make it easier than ever for parents to provide nutritious meals for their children. With just a few clicks you'll have your little one trying exotic vegetables in no time!

Eating can be a real adventure for little ones! To ensure they're getting proper nourishment, it's important to continue introducing new foods—even if acceptance takes up to 15 exposures.

Patience is essential; eventually your kiddo will reach the point of being receptive and willing to try something different...bon appetit!

Safety and Customization

If you're looking for a safe, non-toxic food packaging option look no further than something that's FDA approved and BPA free—like our proprietary meal prep packs. You don't have to worry about hormone disruptions or any other health concerns caused by unwanted chemicals leaching into your meals if heated.

Now, that's what we call peace of mind!

A parent's dream come true: Raised Real containers not only provide safe storage and heating for your children's meals, but also exceed FDA requirements for BPA-free materials.

Your Membership Grows with Baby

Ready to give your little one a delicious, nutritious start?

Our flexible membership plans are here for you every step of the way! With hassle-free pre-packaged meals designed for children six months old and up, it's never been easier to make sure growing babies have all they need—from their first bites through toddler years.

Achieving the perfect consistency for your child's meals can be a challenge—especially as they grow. To make mealtime easier, our company recommends tailoring cooking styles to suit different stages of development!

Steaming then puréeing food is the best method for infants aged six to nine months; younger infants under nine months require blending until smooth.

We make it easy to provide a growing baby with healthy and nutritious food with our organic baby food delivery service. Why not simplify mealtime today? Provide your kiddo with well-balanced, easy and convenient meals by becoming a member.

By working with us, you can rest assured that all their nutritional needs are met and that each portion is tailored specifically to their individual needs.

Looking forward to guiding you on this new parenting journey and providing your baby with the nutrition they need! We're here to help make mealtime easier for you and healthier for your baby.
